The Union Republicans of Northumberland county met in Convention on the 16th inst. A resolution strongly urging the nomination of J. B. Packer, Esq., of Sunbury, for Congress, was unanimously passed. S. H. Rothermel was placed in nomination for Sheriff, and Charles J. Bruner for Prothonotary. Messrs. John L. Watson, A. T. Bisel, and John Youngman were appointed Senatorial conferees.

—A captain and a constable of St. Louis fell in love with a pretty young wife of an old hotel keeper of that city. The captain took the fair one to task for not showing him more favor and at the same time struck her in the face, putting an eye out. He was arrested by his rival, the constable, but the matter was compromised by the captain buying a glass eye for the lady, and coming down handsomely with the greenbacks. The lady's lost eye was defective, but the glass one is brilliant and without a flaw.

—The large American emigrant ship Monarch of the Seas, which sailed from Liverpool on the 19th of March, last for New York, has been four months at sea, and fears are entertained that some dreadful disaster has overtaken her, and that she has gone to the bottom with all on board. She had 674 passengers, and a crew of 54 men, including officers. The vessel was valued at $125,000, and is fully insured.

—The Mayor of Toronto has written a letter to the New York Times. Among other fine things, he says: "The danger being now over, I beg leave to give you to understand that we, as true Britains, fear not; that even I can raise Orangemen enough to hurl back any number of Yankees or Fenian marauders which may attempt to invade the sacred soil of Upper Canada."

—It is reported that Gen. Rousseau has written a letter resigning his seat in Congress.

Gent's Gift Concert
To be given at City Hall on the 30th inst., is drawing near. The managers, Messrs. McDonald, Thompson & Co., are completing their arrangements, so the public may have no fears of an additional postponement. It won't be necessary. The tickets are selling fast. No wonder. Splendid music and attractive gifts. Read their advertisement in another column and be convinced. Every body should have a ticket. Don't wait till the evening of the Concert, for then there will be so much excitement and confusion that it won't be convenient perhaps to have tickets registered, a very important item in such enterprises.

Beautiful Photographs.
The pedestrian on St. Clair street is irresistably attracted to gaze into the art windows of the well known photographer, B. L. H. Dabbs. At the present time there is upon exhibition a number of photographs finished by the artist Wenzel, which, for beauty of execution, are superior to anything ever turned out in this city. One cabinet photograph of a little son of Rev. James Allison, is worthy of special attention. It is a master-piece of photographic art. Another, the picture of a little daughter of Mr. Burns, is the most faithful likeness of an earthly angel we have ever seen. The crowning photograph, however, is that of a young lady of Allinese, Ohio. It is a life-size cabinet photograph, delicately colored, and is a general ne plus ultra. There are many other specimens on exhibition, and the admirer of beautiful would do well to call and closely examine the many superb works of photographic art in Mr. Dabbs' establishment. Feeling for the Afflicted
We wish our readers to distinctly understand that there is no "feeling business" done at the Steam Dental Establishment of Dr. Quincy A. Scott, No. 216 Penn street, third door above Hand. He advertises extensively, but he does not exactly what he says. He is a trustworthy and reliable man, and a skilful dentist. He don't profess to give Laughing Gas free, in order to entice people into his office, and then charge them extra for it, as has been done at other establishments in this city. He gives it positively free of charge to every one. He extracts numbers of teeth daily without the slightest pain, and makes no charge for extracting teeth when artificial teeth are ordered. He gives a full set of teeth, on rubber, with beautiful gums (such as other dentists charge $10 for), for $5 dollars. A full set for $10 which others charge from $15 to $25 for, and a full set for from $18 to $25 which he will guarantee to be better than can be made at any other establishment at any price. He is no well established in business that he don't consider it necessary to publish references, but for the sake of those who may wish them we will state that he can refer to thousands of the best families in the city and surrounding country, including ministers, physicians, lawyers, merchants, bankers, and in fact people in every department of business.

THE MASK THROWN OFF.

When the President resolved to betray the Republican party, and hand over, if possible, the government to the control of the rebels and copperheads, he thought it prudent, as far as practicable, to conceal his real design. He repelled as an insult the insinuation that he meditated treachery; protested he honestly meant to eschew the path of TYLER and FILLMORE, and avowed that whatever differences existed between himself and the men who aided in his election, he would fight out inside the Republican lines. There was no sincerity in these protestations. Duplicity was essential to his Policy. What he hoped was by making these comparatively pacific and honorable declarations to alienate many Republicans from their old associations, and to attach them to his fortunes; in the end to lead them into the camp of Democracy. From the first this was apparent to some, but not to all. Now, subterfuges and disguises are discarded; the amalgamation of the Republican followers of the President with the Democrats is openly urged, and measures for its accomplishment actually taken.

Just here the difficulties of the President really begin. Doubtless the Democrats are ready to accept the offices, or any proportion of them, from the President. So far as his schemes for the future concur with their own, they are willing to endorse his ideas. But they are not eager to accept of him and his score or two of followers, as their party leaders. What they did by TYLER and FILLMORE, they are not inclined to do by him and his; but beyond the measure of Democratic precedent as established in the cases of those eminent apostates they are averse to advancing.

Nor is this all. Some Republicans who were bewildered by the President's sophistries into the acceptance and advocacy of his Policy, have drawn back upon finding into what company he would introduce them. Loyal themselves, in all their principles and sentiments, perhaps by temperament or conviction moved to deal leniently with enemies overthrown, they yet had no thought of surrendering the Government into the hands of the men who madly sought its life. Finding such the entertainment to which they were invited, they are making haste to vindicate their fame in returning to the old affiliation.

What consolation the President will find in the Philadelphia Convention the event must disclose. We do not look with trepidation or despair on its convocation. We like Free Speech. Using it ourselves, we are willing everybody else should avail themselves of it. Let the rebels and their sympathizers, together with the Conservatives, meet and say what they want. They may help to a better understanding of the situation; but we have not much faith they will, as we judge the Convention is quite likely to be rent by dissentions; or if they agree at all, to agree in making such demands as the President will hardly dare affront the masses of loyal people by entertaining, much less by attempting to fulfill.

THE CROPS.

So far in the history of the civilized world Providence has failed to send a season so propitious, from beginning to end, as to stop the mouths of croakers and abash the impudence of speculators. But the munificence of Providence to the people of this country has been so constant and abounding that sensible people put little faith in predictions of famine or lamentations over anticipated failures of harvests.

Last spring the cry was raised that the crops were likely to fail, or, at least, fall greatly below the average. In this cry the farmers and speculators emulated each other's vigor and apparent earnestness, and with such effect that the price of cereals rapidly advanced. Many speculators pocketed handsome sums by the operation; perhaps some farmers likewise. Certainly, the consumers, including thousands of poor widows and hundreds of thousands of laborers, mechanics and manufacturers, were seriously victimized.

How does the case stand now? Much of the harvest is secured; and the work of securing the residue is progressing finely. On the whole, a better crop was never gathered. Not that there have not been partial failures here and there. Such failures always occur; but they count for nothing in the aggregate. This country has such length and breadth, that meagreness of productions in one spot is always compensated by exuberance elsewhere. In the aggregate, the defence against famine is unfailing.

That the Spring had an unfriendly opening must be confessed. Rains were withheld over large stretches of territory. Grasses did not start. Seeds did not germinate. Late frosts did some mischief. The signs favored the shriekers. We have recently crossed Pennsylvania diagonally from the southwest corner to the northeast corner, and kept our eyes and ears open. From what we saw and heard we cannot be mistaken in saying the hay crop is at least a full average, and is being secured in excellent condition. Winter wheat and Rye is good. Potatoes and other roots give token of yielding better than common.

Of fruits, so much cannot be said. In some counties strawberries, both wild and cultivated, failed almost entirely, anp raspberries are not plenty. In the western counties these fruits were abundant. In the northeastern counties a worm has destroyed the currants, by rendering them poisonous; in multiplied instances killing the bushes. This pest was imported from England four years ago, by Barry & Ellwanger, of Rochester, N. Y., on a lot of gooseberry bushes. It is about three-quarters of an inch long. It multiplies its progeny almost incredibly. These worms attack the leaves, which they entirely devour. By reason of the destruction of the foliage the fruit becomes unfit for use. These worms travel more than a hundred miles a year, and will probably plague the country before they desist and disappear. Peaches are in most of the counties a bad failure, as were cherries. Of apples, pears and quinces there is not half a crop. Grapes, wherever the climate is congenial, are abundant, and if not struck with mildew, will be of excellent quality. In some vineyards, which we have carefully examined, the vines are fruited up to the utmost limit. We think nearly all are so.

On the whole, the inventory is a good one. The chief lesson to be learned from it is to rely on Providence and disbelieve the croakers.

RETRENCHMENT.

On several occasions we have felt constrained to comment in plain terms upon the extravagance, not to say recklessness, with which large sums of money were voted, and other like appropriations projected, by the present Congress. We have sometimes thought members were deliberately conducting an experiment to determine the precise amount of strain the national finances could bear; and we have felt serious fears that the process would be carried so far as to lead to wide spread disaster, if not actual ruin.

If the aggregate should be ascertained of the various sums Congress has been, and is still, urged to grant for purposes altogether aside from the legitimate objects of the Government, it would be found to rise to some hundreds of millions of dollars; at least half as much as was required for yearly expenses during the prosecution of the war. Many of these propositions are still pending, and several of them are likely to go through.

Congress has now provided for a Joint Committee on Retrenchment, to consist of three Senators and five Representatives, to sit during the recess, and to cover with their inquiries the whole range of the Civil, Military and Naval services. This Committee will take the place, in important particulars, of the Commission on Revenue and Taxation appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and composed of eminent economists not holding seats in the Representative bodies. If Congress would now let all Appropriation Bills, of the class referred to, go over to the next session, and until this Committee shall report upon their merits, there would be a fair prospect that all of them would be squelched.

The President has done the country excellent service in withholding his assent from one or more of these bills, for which we rendered him our thanks at the time. He will strengthen the public confidence in him—of which he stands greatly in need—by continuing to resist all further appropriations for objects not absolutely necessary to the legitimate ends of the government.

PENNSYLVANIA.

In the western counties the Republicans have generally nominated candidates for local offices, and designated Conferees for selecting members of Congress. In some localities, where the "Crawford system" obtains, considerable personal bitterness has been enkindled; but these strifes have produced no apparent estrangements from the party and its principles. In the eastern and northern counties not many of the local tickets have yet been framed. It is the custom to delay until August or September.

So far as we have been able to gather information, there are very few defections from the Republican ranks. A few soreheads, whose capacities and services have not been rated at so high a value by their associates as by themselves, and a few political bummers, who always attach themselves to the flanks of the party that seems to offer them the best opportunities for plunder, are exhibiting a clamorous zeal for the President's Policy. In the ranks of the office-holders, a few individuals are simulating compliances they do not feel, on the false principle, that as the President is cheating the party that honored him with its confidence, it is fair to cheat him. But, beyond these trifling exceptions, the Republican ranks are as solid and well-disciplined as at any former period. Everywhere confidence is felt in the triumphant election of Gen. GEARY. Indeed, the best informed and most dispassionate of the Democratic leaders expect no other result. What they are laboring for is to secure gains in the Congressional and Legislative representatives; and their method is to foment local and personal quarrels on the Republican side. So far the amount of encouragement they have received does not offer inducement to a large outlay of efforts. The Republicans are imbued with a profound conviction of the importance of their cause, and that the crisis of its fate has not yet been passed. They are firmly resolved not to suffer the loss of so many sacrifices and so much exertion.

The Talk of Men and Women.

Some Frenchman of a statistical turn of mind, who evidently has but little to do, publishes in a Havre paper some curious statistics of the average talk of men and women. He has discovered that an ordinary middle aged man spends three hours per day in conversation, calculating at the rate of one hundred words per minute, or twenty-nine octavo pages per hour, which would amount to 600 pages per week, or fifty-two big volumes per year. Having obtained these facts as regards the masculine portions of the human race, the statistician applied his best energies to ascertain the amount of words uttered by an ordinary and middle aged female per minute, and the amount of time spent on the average by that sex in general conversation. After the most patient investigation and abstruse calculation, this able arithmetician was compelled to give up the question and confess the magnitude of the figures produced, even at the outset of the inquiry, baffled all human calculation.

—The Convention of the Iowa Democracy met at Des Moines on the 11th and passed a series of resolutions, demanding the unconditional return of rebels to Congress, approving the President's policy against a protective tariff, etc. The Committee on Business made two reports, the majority favoring the nomination of candidates for two minor offices, and a fusion with the Johnsonites, already in the field, on the remainder of the State ticket; and the minority recommending the nomination of a straight-out Copperhead ticket.

—The London Times again indulges in some complimentary remarks upon the visit of the United States monitor Miantonomoh to England, and says that in allowing this vessel to visit England at the present moment the Government of President Johnson has conferred a service only secondary to that so frankly rendered in the recent suppression of the miserable Fenian demonstration on the shores of the Canadian lakes.

—A terrible accident occurred at Quincy, Ill., on Saturday evening. Three young men, all about eighteen years of age, were caught by a freight train while crossing the track of the railroad in a buggy. They were promising young men, and sons respectively of K. K. Jones, Thomas Payne, and R. E. Letton, prominent citizens of the county. The two former were instantly killed; the latter lingers, but cannot survive.

—The New Jersey Railroad and Transportation Company has been declared, by a coroner's jury at Jersey City, to be guilty of manslaughter. If convicted after a trial by a jury "of its peers," we suppose it must be punished in the person of its president and directors.

—It is estimated that forty thousand soldiers are buried at Corinth, Miss., within a radius of twenty miles. A large proportion perished from sickness during General Halleck's term of command after the battle of Shiloh.

—A burglar entered the sleeping apartment of the editor and sub-editor of the Chattanooga Daily Union on Friday night, and robbed them of everything they had in the world, in consequence of which the early suspension of the paper is looked for. Their combined loss was twenty-five cents.

LOSS BY THE PORTLAND FIRE,

July 4th.

The total amount covered by Ætna Policies on property destroyed or damaged is $206,854, on which salvage will be about 25 per cent. Our total loss will not vary much from $20,000, and is being promptly adjusted and paid. This sum is 5 per cent. upon the assets, a figure but slightly exceeding our Government and State taxes, paid last year, or a proportion equal to a $5,000 loss for a company of $100,000 assets.

The necessity for insurance and the value of well managed strong corporations, is forcibly illustrated by this fire. Several weak Insurance Companies are destroyed. Portland has a population of fifty-five thousand, was handsomely built, mostly fine brick and stone structures, protected and screened with upwards of three thousand shade trees—bounded on three sides by water—fenced, literally, almost in the heart of the city, and with a good steam fire department—yet it has $20,000,000 property consumed in a few hours—upon a holiday when its people are least prompt, from the very insignificant cause of a contemptible fire cracker.

Remember the startling origin of fires that sweep away in a few hours the earnings of years. Consider your best interests, and give the Ætna Agent a call if you want proper insurance security. Policies issued at fair terms.

Mayhew, the Youthful Burglar.

It is but a short time since we noticed the arrest, trial, conviction and order of consignment to the House of Refuge, of Henry Mayhew, aged about fourteen years, for burglariously entering the house and office of William Penn and Dr. Roberts, in South Pittsburgh, and taking therefrom property of considerable value. The Washington Examiner furnishes the following concerning his experience since:

"A lad who gave his name as Henry Mayhew, and who hails from Pittsburgh, was committed to jail on Thursday of last week, by Justice Grayson, to answer at Court, a charge of stealing about thirty-five dollars from Alexander R. Waltz, tobacconist of this place. He entered the store while Mr. Waltz was temporarily absent, passed behind the counter, opened the till, and abstracted the money. The theft being discovered in a few minutes afterwards, chase was made and the thief captured in the cellar belonging to Major Morgan's residence. He admitted the larceny, but no part of the money was found on his person, he alleging that he had thrown it away in endeavoring to escape. A silver watch was found in his possession, however, which he said had been given him by his father, and which he handed to Mr. Waltz as part reimbursement. It has since been ascertained that it belongs to a young man named, James Wilson, and that the rascal took it from the house of Benj. Uhler, a short distance out the Pittsburgh pike, while the inmates were engaged in an adjoining lot. He says he was an inmate of the Pittsburgh jail for twenty-one days for some offence, and escaped from the Sheriff of Allegheny county while being conveyed to the House of Refuge. He appears to be well versed in crime.

Fire in Allegheny.

Yesterday morning about three o'clock a fire broke out in the barrel factory of Messrs R. T. Kennedy & Bro., in Rebecca street, First ward, Allegheny. The building was owned by Messrs, Patterson & Evans, but had been rented by Messrs. Kennedy, of the Pearl Mill, for the purpose of manufacturing barrels. Fortunately all the work finished was removed yesterday, hence the loss was light, and is fully covered by insurance. Mr. E. R. Donehoo, successor to Patterson & Evans, lost about thirty thousand feet of lumber, which was fully covered by insurance. The losses which weigh most heavily will fall upon the workmen, who lost all their tools, on which there was no insurance. How the fire originated is not known. Owing to the calmness of the morning, and the promptness of the firemen, much valuable property, which was in imminent danger, was saved.

A Careless Act.

Yesterday morning between one and two o'clock, night watchman, Thomas Hamilton, discovered the front door of Dilworth and Dewhurst's wholesale grocery, warehouse on Liberty street, standing open. Fearing that the house had been robbed, he immediately gave the alarm, and with Lieutenant David Campbell proceeded to make an investigation of the premises, but could find nothing to confirm their suspicions of a robbery having been committed. A guard was placed on the door, who remained until the arrival of the proprietors in the morning. The door had been left open through sheer carelessness, which Messrs. Dilworth and Dewhurst have reason to be thankful that this neglect had not been taken advantage of.

Held for Trial.

Yesterday John Deemer, driver on the Oakland Passenger Railway, had a hearing before Mayor McCarthy on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, preferred by Patrick Noeson. The alleged assault occurred on the 6th instant, and grew out of the quarrel which ensued between the driver and Noeson. It was alleged that after Noeson jumped from the passenger car, Deemer threw a boulder at him, which struck him on the head. Noeson was seriously injured, his skull being fractured, and for a time it was feared that he would not recover. Deemer, after the hearing, was required to enter bail in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance to answer the charge at court.

Hit Him With a Bucket.

George Iranner instituted legal proceedings against Louisa Rose, yesterday, before Alderman Taylor, for assault and battery. The deponent alleges that Louisa is a continual source of annoyance to himself and family, frequently indulging her spleen by abusing them with her tongue, while on Thursday evening she carried the warfare so far as to throw a bucketful of water on Iranner, and afterwards strike him with the bucket over the head, inflicting a wound of several inches in extent. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Miss Rose.

We have read with great interest the report of the Superintendent of the Western Military Institute for 1866. This institution, one of the finest in the country, is located in a suburb of Dayton, Ohio, is conducted in all its exercises of study and recitation, as well as of drill and parade, on strictly military principles. An officer of the United States army has been detailed to have charge. Rev. Samuel Findley, will known in this community as an experienced and successful educator, (and who can be consulted for some days, as advertised in another column,) is a Professor and Chaplain of the Institute. We advise parents and guardians to see Mr. Findley. They will not fail to be impressed with the highest confidence in this being one of the safest and best schools anywhere to be found.

Breach of Promise.—James Haworth, an Englishman, was lodged in jail yesterday by the Sheriff, on a capias, to answer one Sarah Dawson in an action for breach of promise. As we understand the matter, Haworth had been "paying attention" to Miss Dawson, as she believed, with a view to making her his wife. Upon learning that he had selected and had actually chosen another, she felt woefully disappointed, and has determined to seek damages at court for her wounded feelings.

Women Changed Tots.—We did not know until yesterday that the managers of the upper bridge across the Monongahela exacted toll from the fair sex. On all other bridges spanning the rivers in this section they are allowed to pass free. We understand that frequent alterations occur in consequence, women accustomed to pass on other bridges without being required to pay toll being disposed to argue the point when stopped by the keepers of the one referred to.

Attempted Outrage.—A young lady named Harriet Lord, residing a short distance from Meadville, Pa., was attacked by a young man named Henry Baldwin, who, in attempting to outrage her person, beat her in a cruel manner. Her cries for assistance brought several men who were working in a field close by to her rescue, when Baldwin fled. He was subsequently lodged in jail to await trial. Miss Lord is scarce fifteen years of age.

Fell In.—During the heavy rain yesterday afternoon, a portion of Stevenson street, in the Eighth Ward, about ten feet square, fell into the sewer beneath, carrying with it a valuable shade tree and a couple of curbstone. The portion that gave way is in close proximity to the mouth of the sewer, which is not of sufficient capacity to carry off the water consequent upon an ordinary shower of rain, and hence the accident.

Threatened to Send Her.—Mary Jane Ahs who has been in an endless variety of difficulties of late, made an information against a certain Mrs. Cooper for assault and battery yesterday, before Alderman Taylor. The deponent alleges that Louisa is a continual source of annoyance to himself and family, frequently indulging her spleen by abusing them with her tongue, while on Thursday evening she carried the warfare so far as to throw a bucketful of water on Branner, and afterwards strike him with the bucket over the head, inflicting a wound of several inches in extent. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mrs Rose.

Alleged Riotous Disturbance.—Yesterday, Patrick Noeson, James Creaton, and John McCormick, accused of riot by John Deemer, employed as driver on the Oakland Passenger Railway, had a hearing before Mayor McCarthy, which resulted in their discharge, the evidence adduced, in the opinion of His Honor, not justifying him in sending the case to court.

Handsome Gift.—A few days since Mayor McCarthy was presented by a number of citizens, with a handsomely carved walnut chair, in which to recline his head while administering justice. Mayor McCarthy's friends are determined that nothing shall be lacking that would in any way contribute to the dignity of his position as chief magistrate of our city.

Corner Stone Laying.—To-morrow afternoon, Bishop Dominec will participate in the ceremonies attendant upon the laying of the corner stone of St. Mary's Church, in Sharpsburg. Trains will run on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, for the accomodation of those who desire to attend.

Boat Race To-day.—Should the weather prove favorable, and nothing else interfere to prevent it, a race will take place this afternoon over the Monongahela course between the Pittsburgh and Manchester crews, in four-oared boats. The contest is announced to take place between four and five o'clock.

Whipped a Child.—Mrs. Ellen McGraw was charged with assaulting a little son of Nathan Pedham with a stick on the head, before Alderman Taylor, yesterday. Mrs. McGraw was arrested but gave bail for a hearing on Tuesday afternoon.

Gave Bail.—William Ward appeared before Alderman Lynch yesterday, and made oath against John Kelly for surety of the peace. The accused was arrested and made to give bail in the sum of $200 to keep the peace.

Fell Dead.—A horse, belonging to John Numan of the Eighth Ward, fell dead on Ann street yesterday, while hauling a load of bricks.

A Deserter.—Mayor Morrison, yesterday, committed John Kade, charged by his wife with desertion.

Rebellion Record, Part 26, (Illustrated,) received and for sale by H. Miner.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various worthless nostrums are calling upon Mrs. Winslow's friends to notice that the name of Winslow to the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy13:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Rosseau Tenders His Resignation—Fees Received by Consuls and Consular Agents—The Education of Freedmen.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The morning papers contain the following specials from Washington: General Rosseau has tendered his resignation as a member of the House of Representatives to Governor Bramlette, of Kentucky.

A communication from the President, in compliance with law, gives a list of the aggregate of all fees received by the various Consuls and Consular agents: During the last year those at London were over $35,000; Liverpool $37,000; Manchester $23,000; Montreal $10,000, Paris $42,000; Matamoras $14,000; Havana $25,000; Hamburg $10,000; Belfast $9,000. These are the largest amounts, and the scale descends to very low figures.

O. B. Randolph, formerly of New York but now of New Orleans, is on here to arrange if possible, some plan whereby the freedmen may be educated at their own expense. He has had several interviews with officials, all of whom encourage him in the sensible view he advocates, that of preparing the negro for the position of good citizenship. He is to have an interview with the President to-morrow.

The Second Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that when a soldier on his return from discharge, or absence without leave, is sentenced to make good the time of his illegal absence, he will be paid at the rates that he obtained while he was absent, and he will not be discovered in a few minutes afterwards, chase was made and the thief captured in the cellar belonging to Major Morgan's residence. He admitted the larceny, but no part of the money was found on his person, he alleging that he had thrown it away in endeavoring to escape. A silver watch was found in his possession, however, which he said had been given him by his father, and which he handed to Mr. Waltz as part reimbursement. It has since been ascertained that it belongs to a young man named, James Wilson, and that the rascal took it from the house of Benj. Uhler, a short distance out the Pittsburgh pike, while the inmates were engaged in an adjoining lot. He says he was an inmate of the Pittsburgh jail for twenty-one days for some offence, and escaped from the Sheriff of Allegheny county while being conveyed to the House of Refuge. He appears to be well versed in crime.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations have agreed to recommend the rejection of Tuckerman, of New York, recently appointed Minister to Greece, and also to strike out the salary.

FROM MEXICO.

Progress of American Bible Society—Liberal Raids on the Puebla Railroad.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The Herald's City of Mexico correspondence of the 14th says: The American Bible Society is flourishing finely in Mexico and other cities, notwithstanding a determined opposition from the priesthood, who recently raised up an old law and confiscated the stock in several places. Romero came to the aid of the Bible agents, however, and they are free from persecution for the present.

Various reports of small skirmishes and outrages by both parties make the main facts of the news.

The Liberal cavalry had given a wholesome scare to the residents of Vera Cruz, and had made one or two small successful raids on the Puebla Railroad.

Counterfeiters Arrested—Tools, Plates, Etc., Captured—Increase of Cholera Reported.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The police made another capture yesterday of a large number of finely executed steel plates, two presses, dies, rollers, paper, bogus money, and four prisoners. The material taken amounts in value to $50,000.

The cases of cholera and six deaths were reported yesterday in New York, and four cases, three of which were fatal, in Brooklyn. Active measures to prevent the cholera becoming epidemic have been adopted.

From Canada—Report of the Special Trade Commission.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The Herald's Ottawa, C. W., dispatch says: The report of the Special Trade Commission, which recently visited the West Indies and South America, to open a trade between those countries and the British North American Possessions, was submitted to the Canadian Parliament yesterday. Another treaty was concluded between two of the members, one of whom charged the Government with bribery and corruption.

From Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—Members of the City Council and city officers of Philadelphia arrived here yesterday, and were met by a delegation of the Cincinnati Council, and escorted to principal points of interest in the city. They were entertained in the evening at the Cincinnati Club Rooms. They leave for Louisville to-day.

A dispatch to the Commercial says that the Hon. Thomas Ewing has written a letter endorsing the Philadelphia Convention.

Great Trot at Fashion Course—Dexter the Victor—Fastest Time on Record.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The bay gelding Dexter won the purse of a thousand dollars, mile heats, in trotting match under the saddle, at the Fashion Course, Long Island, yesterday, beating General Butler and Toronto Chief, when he made the best time on record, Flora Temple's famous three mile heats being beaten. The second mile heat was made in 2:18, which time was never beaten, except by Dexter himself in his trot against time, when he made it in 2:18 1-5.

Massachusetts Democratic Convention

BOSTON, July 20.—The Democratic State Convention met to-day and took measures to secure the election of delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, July 20, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: 1881s, 109¼@110¼; 1881s, 109¼@110¼; old 5-20s, 106¾; new ditto, 105¾@105¾-30-40s, 98¾; 7-30s 107¾@108¾. Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad 89¾; Erie, 69¾; Fort Wayne, 99¾; Western Telegraph, 50¾@50¾; Chicago & Northwestern, 39¾; preferred do, 63¾.

A decline in foreign exchange, especially 60 day bills which are offered by brokers below specie rates, keeps the gold market weak. Many holders of coin have become disgusted with carrying such a valuable but unproductive security, and are sneezed at by their more venturesome neighbor who sold when it was evidently declining, and invested in government bonds.

Quotations for national securities were somewhat irregular to-day, with a decline in the ordinary issues of 1865s. After a sharp advance, there always follows a lull, as if to gather strength for another rise. There is no cause for a decline on the contrary, a further advance may be looked for, as the money market remains easy, and the government is still disbursing. Strictly speculative stocks managed by cliques are lower, but all shares of companies that can earn an honest dividend are strong and tend upward.

There is considerable inquiry for our city and county bonds, but they are held above their real value; putting them at par with national securities, which, besides their intrinsic value, are more appreciated, since they find a market all over the country, and are not subject to local contingencies.

Small denominations of gold bearing bonds are now from ¾ to 1 per cent lower than large bonds, and registered old 5-20s equal to new 10s. Whenever the west sends bonds to the east to be sold, which generally occurs after a sharp advance, a discrimination is made between a large bond and a small one in favor of the former, but when the country is buying, the reverse is the case.

—None of the one year certificates now draw interest. They are payable on presentation, with interest not beyond July 17th. It is expected that the compound Treasury Certificates will be called in by stopping the interest in a few weeks. After that the Government can begin to contract the currency. In July and August, 1867, some three hundred and fifty millions of Compounds and 7-30s mature. A large portion of these, however, will probably be settled by some funding process before they are due.

—The report of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, presented by Mr. Hooper to Congress on Monday, is a timely document, suggestive of reform in the management of national banks. It recommends the prosecution of the managers of defaulting banks, and particularly those of Merchants' National Bank at Washington, and proposes amendments to the National Currency Act to meet existing deficiencies of legislation. It is understood that it was owing to the investigations and report of this Committee that Mr. F. Clark, the Comptroller of the Currency, sent in his resignation, though in his letter he has not assigned any reason for his act. The National Bank Act provides that the Comptroller should be appointed by the President, on the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury, by and with the consent and advice of the Senate.

—The New York Tribune says: The long expected decision of Judge Nelson was yesterday delivered in regard to the taxation of stocks held by bankers and brokers on their own account. The Judge holds, first, that persons doing business under a banker's license may transact the business of both banker and broker under it; that when purchases and sales of stocks are made by a banker for his own account, he is not liable to pay a tax on such transactions. Also, that a banker may advance money on stocks, and sell them to reimburse his advances, without being liable to the brokers' tax. This decision attracts considerable attention, as it overrules the one lately made by the revenue department.

—The official custom-house returns of the foreign trade at the port of New York for ten months of the fiscal year just ended including the last month of May, have just been rendered, and show that the total consumption of foreign goods through that port were valued at $229,874,233 against $138,135,127 the previous fiscal year. The amount of customs actually received on foreign merchandise was $[illegible]. The exports of all descriptions for the 11 months of the fiscal year were:

1865-6.	1864-5.
July 1 to May 31.	July 1 to May 31.
Domestic produce..$200,781,744	$175,528,082

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The Money Market remains very easy at 4@5 per cent. on call, with the supply largely in excess of the demand. The gold market was generally quiet this afternoon, and after selling down to 143¾, rose to 150 at the close. Cash gold is getting scarcer and has been loaned to-day at 1-32@¼ per cent. premium, but chiefly at a lower rate. The market for Exchange was very dull and lower. Rates were accepted to-day by the leading bankers. Government Securities were dull and weak this afternoon. Stock of Flour in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, July 18.—In view of the extraordinary falling off in the city and elsewhere of the quantity of flour now held in Cincinnati, we have been at some pains to ascertain, as nearly as possible, the actual amount now here in the hands of commission merchants, owners and others. We find that the stock consists of 44,665 barrels, including that held by all our millers and jobbers for use and not on the market for sale.

Of the above amount we find that fully one-half is of grade below superfine, and much of this is unsound.

In making up our figures of course some of the stock in the hands of retailers can not be arrived at, and must necessarily be omitted, but the aggregate given is not far out of the way.

As is pretty generally known, our city millers are at present grinding but very little, and shipments from Chicago and St. Louis are nearly ceased.—THORNTON, CRANE & Co.
